DR. D. A. AMOSS TENDERS BONDS

Were Taken By The Sheriff of Caldwell County For $3,000

IRVIN GLASS RETURNS.

Arrived From Missouri In Custody of Sheriff—Malone Not Under Bond.

Three bonds for $1,000 each, taken by Sheriff Henry Towery, of Caldwell county, were returned in circuit court yesterday in the three cases against Dr. D. A. Amoss charged with conspiracy, etc. One bond with T. L. Amoss and W. W. Childress as sureties was taken by Sheriff Towery March 22. The other two with H. B. Pollard and J. H. Glover as sureties were taken by Deputy Sheriff Wylie Jones April 1. The bonds are being investigated by Judge Hanbery and if found good bonds will be accepted. The warrants had on the backs of them authority to the sheriff to accept bonds for $1000 in each case.

Irvin Glass was brought in from Sikeston, Mo., Sunday, by Sheriff Low Johnson and was expected to meet bondsmen here yesterday. He remained in the custody of the sheriff pending the arrival of his friends. Bond had not been executed at noon.

Guy Dunning, one of the Trigg county men indicted for complicity in the raid on Hopkinsville, has retained Jno. W. Kelly and T. P. Cook to defend him. It is reported that C. H. Bush has been retained in some of the cases. It is also reported that Trimble & Bell and John Stites have been retained to assist in the prosecution of all of the defendants.

J. B. Malone alias "B" Malone, one of the men indicted, has not yet been arrested. He lives in Trigg county. The warrant was sent to Caldwell March 19.

NO MONEY YET.

School Teachers Must Wait a Little Longer.

Frankfort, Ky., April 1.—The balance in the treasury April 1 shows that there is not enough money on hand with which to pay the school teachers, the balance being $310,018.70, and the state owes the teachers $418,000.

As soon as money enough comes into the treasury the teachers will be paid, as they have not received their money for several months.

It is estimated that the deficit at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, will amount to over $1,000,000.

ANOTHER CONVICTION.

Boone Bush Gets a Sentence of One Year in Crittenden County, Kentucky.

Nashville, Tenn., April 4.—The Supreme Court Saturday affirmed the sentence of Marcellus Rinehart, the Montgomery county night rider, who was convicted of the murder of Rufus Hunter, and fixed the date of his hanging May 28.

Rinehart was convicted in the Criminal Court of Montgomery county last July of the murder of Rufus Hunter, in March, 1909, in the Fourteenth Civil District. The trial lasted twenty-eight days. Strong legal talent was arrayed on both sides. The jury returned a verdict of murder in the first degree, with mitigating circumstances, and recommended the mercy of the court. Rinehart a few days afterwards was sentenced to death by Judge Tyler. The case was argued before the Supreme Court in February.

BUSH CONVICTED

One Year in Prison for Man Charged With Whipping H. B. Bennett.

Marion, Ky., April 4.—In the case against Boone Bush for complicity in the night rider raid of February 3, 1908, in which H. B. Bennett and William Groves were dragged from their homes at midnight and unmercifully whipped while tied to thorn trees, and in sight of Bennett's burning factory at Dycusburg, the jury rendered a verdict at 8 o'clock Saturday night of guilty, fixing his punishment at one year in the penitentiary.

The case was given the jury at 4 o'clock, four hours being consumed in coming to an agreement in the case.

The Hon. John L. Grayot, of Smithland, Commonwealth's Attorney, made a speech that was declared to have been one of the most powerful flights of oratory ever heard in Marion.

Other cases of the 80 on the docket will be tried to the end of the term of court, Saturday, April 9.

ANOTHER MURDER.

Woman and Children Beaten and One Child Killed by Night Riders.

Brownsville, Ky., April 4.—A band of night riders went to the home of Mrs. Carroll, in the northern part of Edmonson county, near Groff postoffice, last Tuesday night and surrounded it. The house was occupied by Mrs. Carroll and her three children, a girl about sixteen years of age, a boy about eighteen and the boy who was shot aged 12. The family were aroused from their slumbers and dragged from the house. At a short distance from the house they stopped and administered a severe whipping to Mrs. Carroll and her two oldest children. It is reported that they literally cut their backs to pieces with large switches.

While they were whipping the two older children the young boy made a break to get away, and as he ran some one of the band shot him in the back with a gun and he fell. He was picked up by some of the band and carried into the house, and they then proceeded to finish the whipping that they had begun on

CHARGED WITH MULE STEALING

Tom Owen, of Montgomery County, Tenn., Arrested Yesterday.

HAD SOLD A MULE HERE

And Sheriff Ordered Him Held For Stealing the Animal.

The sheriff of Montgomery county, Tenn., yesterday telephoned Chief Roper to look out for R. E. Jones charged with stealing a mule. Jones was promptly located where he had sold the mule to Leavell & Co., $70. He had tried to cash the check and failing gave it up when arrested. He proved to be a young man named Tom Owen, of Palmyra, Tenn.

He claims to have bought the mule from a negro at New Providence while he was drunk, paying $5.00 for him. The police are holding him, as the State pays a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of a horsethief and the fact that the mule was sold here gives Kentucky jurisdiction if Owen is held to be guilty.

the others.

The boy was shot with a shotgun and died Thursday.

The boy who was whipped says that he recognized as many as two of the band, but so far he has not divulged their names.

The authorities are taking vigorous steps to ascertain the names of the guilty persons. The County Attorney, John A. Logan, has caused a court of inquiry to be called by County Judge W. S. Alexander, and the examination will be held within a few days.

Drouth Broken.

Welcome April showers that began falling Saturday have ended the spring drouth that was becoming serious. All kinds of vegetation has been started to growing and spring is well advanced.

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The pain ceased and the child sank into a restful sleep."—Mrs. Nancy M. Hanson, Hambury, N. Y.
